NAVIGATING THE ETHICAL LANDSCAPE OF THE AGING THERAPIST: A MINDFUL EXPLORATION OF THE CHANGING TERRAIN

With Jesse Harris-Bathrick, LMFT and Joanna Colrain, LPC, CGP, ACS

Psychotherapy is a profession that values the wisdom and experience of the older practitioner. We may continue our work into our seventh, eighth, or even ninth decade! For the seasoned therapist who is experiencing physical and developmental changes that come with aging, there are both gifts and losses. The changing landscape of self directly affects our way of being with clients. This workshop will provide an experiential exploration of our awareness of those changes, how they affect our therapeutic relationships, and the ethical issues intertwined in our navigation of those changes.

FIVE ETHICS hours have been approved by the Georgia Society for Clinical Social Workers. (This satisfies Ethics requirements for all Composite Board licensees.)

THIS WORKSHOP, ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 1, 2019,
WILL BE RESCHEDULED FOR THE SPRING OF 2020.
CHECK BACK HERE AFTER JANUARY 20, 2020 FOR NEW DATE.
JOANNA AND JESSE WILL BE PRESENTING “THE CHAMBERED NAUTILUS”
ON OCTOBER 25, 2019.

Presenters Joanna Colrain, LPC and Jesse Harris-Bathrick, LMFT have been collaborating since 1985.

Jesse Harris-Bathrick, MA, LMFT has been a psychotherapist and family therapist for over 40 years providing services to individuals, couples and families. She has an MA from Antioch New England Graduate School and post graduate training at the Cambridge Family Institute. She is a Certified Imago Therapist and holds a post Graduate Certificate in the PsychoSocial Foundations of Peace Building from The School for International Training. She has conducted trainings and consultations worldwide in hospitals, community mental health and public health centers, and prisons, on childhood sexual abuse, traumatic loss, family and couples therapy, mindfulness, Imago therapy, women's issues, grief and loss, and conflict transformation. Jesse was a cofounder of the Adult Sexual Abuse Survivor Program at Prevent Child Abuse Georgia that ran from 1983-1996 providing training for professionals and group therapy for adult abuse survivors. From 2005-2008, Jesse was a trainer/consultant with the Psycho-Spiritual Healing Project at the Sarvodaya Institute in Sri Lanka, responding to traumatic loss following the 2004 tsunami. Jesse has also conducted “play shops” for couples and for women in transition that utilize the creative process, high energy fun and collaborative games to connect, heal, transform and empower.

Joanna Colrain, LPC, CGP, ACS has been in practice for 40 years, specializing in treatment of dissociative and borderline spectrum disorders, clinical supervision, and the ethics of self-care and mindfulness. She was Clinical Supervisor and Trainer for the Survivor Support Program of Prevent Child Abuse Georgia for 13 years. She served as Clinical Director of Metropolitan Counseling Services for its first 5 years. Joanna has authored articles, manuals, and chapters on the treatment of trauma and on supervision. In 1998, she developed a course (24 CE hours) “The Art of Clinical Supervision: Facilitating a Discovery Process.” For 20 years, she's been teaching Mindful Presence in Psychotherapy.™ She worked with the Center for Torture and Trauma Survivors and continues to provide consultation and volunteer services to agencies serving refugees and torture survivors. Joanna was a member of the Core Facilitator Team for MaleSurvivor Weekends of Recovery (malesurvivor.org) for 7 years. Joanna mentors professionals, artists, healers and social change activists who are attempting to integrate their work into the rest of their lives in a way that feeds the soul, validates the authentic self, and builds community.
